

1. Who provides a W-2?

2. How often do you receive a W-2?

3. When should you expect to receive your W-2 (What is the date it is required to "be on the way"?)

4. Who else will be receiving a copy of your W-2?

5. What is an alternative form for a W-2?

6. What is a supplemental form to a W-2 (used for distributions that have not had any taxes withheld yet)?

7. What are some distributions that a 1099 form is used for?

8. What information on your W-2 form should you make sure to check for accuracy?

9. What other information can be found on your W-2 form?

10. How many W-2 forms should you receive?

11. What should have happened to any amount that is shown as “withheld” on your W-2?

12. If you stop working for an employer, and choose to request your W-2 early, how long does that former employer have to provide it to you?